

The

SINCE 1911

Hitavada

Aenco – go-green campaign begins in city

■ 10,000 saplings to be planted on Independence Day

The plantation programme held at city airport recently.

■ Staff Reporter

THE Animal & Environment Care Organisation will launch a joint 'Aenco-go' green campaign from Saturday. On this occasion, 10,000 saplings will be planted.

Punit Tripathi, President, Animal & Environment Care Organisation said the campaign was started from city airport and 400 saplings were planted around Raja Bhoj Airport.

According to the Organisation secretary Vaibhav Jain under the tree plantation campaign, to be continued till August 31, the saplings will be planted at many places Shrikrishna Gaushala in Jail, Nandni Gaushala, Kamdhenu gaushala, Rajiv Gandhi College, Katyani Gaushala, Bhoomi sanstha and some other places. On the inauguration of the tree plantation programme prominent among those present included airport authority A K Sharma, SD Tiwari, Rakesh Bahri, Sneha Sharma, Sangeeta Bahri, Samik Chaudhary, Dheeraj Devid and Vaishali Jain.